

Working Days Lost: January to December 2007

Number of working days lost for TSol (inc. AGO and HM CPSI) staff is: 7.46***

- This is a reduction on the previous year's figure (8.00) therefore showing an improvement
- Compared to the other department's who have already provided the information to the Cabinet Office we are in the lower half and compare well against the average of 9.8 working days lost (only 27 department's responded)

* This figure may be adjusted to in June once our fully integrated HR Database has all the necessary information to accurately calculate the figures.
